

Welcome. To set up automatic notification of the latest New Hampshire National Guard Technician vacancies, interested individuals can set up an “Agent” on the USAJobs website .

First, if you don't already have an account with USA Jobs, you can create an account and resume' by logging on to their site by clicking below or typing it into the address bar of your web browser.

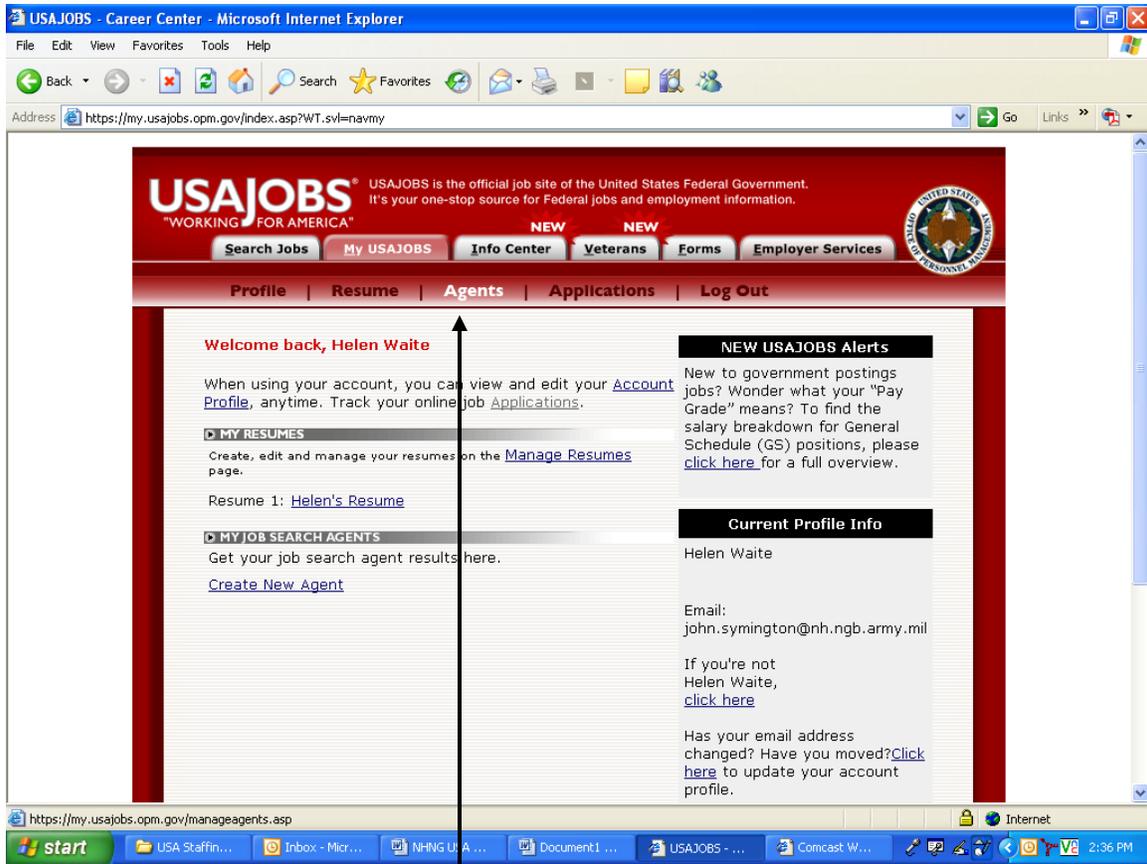

<http://www.usajobs.opm.gov/>

Once you are there, click on “My USAJobs”

Next, log in to your account by putting in your User Name, password and clicking on "Log Me In!" button. If you do not currently have an account with USAJobs, click on the "Create your account now" button

Once you're in (or have created and an account and logged in), click on the "Agents" button then Click on "Create New Agent"

When page loads, you'll make your selections based upon the criteria you are looking to search. For New Hampshire Guard technician positions, the important thing is that you have "NH" highlighted in the Job Locations block and have National Guard Units (for ARNG) and Air National Guard Units (for ANG) highlighted in the Agencies block.

Note: National Guard Units can be found under the "ARMY, Department of" heading and Air National Guard Units can be found under the "AIR FORCE, Department of" heading.

For those applicants who wish to receive notification of both ANG and ARNG positions, you will hold the control key (or Ctrl) down while selecting in order to get both the National Guard Unit and Air National Guard Units selected.

Once you have the agencies selected, scroll down...

Now you will select “Yes” on the Applicant Eligibility” radio button. You will also indicate the frequency in which you would like to receive notification. The last thing to do is title your Agent to personalize it and click on the Save Agent button.

From here you can view open New Hampshire National Guard technician positions that are open by clicking the "View" link.

NOTE: If your search shows jobs posted: Last 24 hours, you can change that for a wide selection of positions. Choose "Last 30 days" for a better view.
